Where is KHAO LAK and what is there to do?

Khao Lak is situated 80 kms north of Phuket. This is a quiet area with natural beauty and beachfront resorts. There are the amazing Similan Island reefs with marine life such as giant sea turtles, manta rays and a variety of fish and reef sharks. The Similan Islands are about 20 minutes away and accessible for keen divers and snorkellers by long tail boat. Off the beach, you can windsurf, kayak, water-ski, canoe and snorkel. On land the surrounding landscape allows for mountain biking, trekking, bird watching and discovering the Khao Lak National Park. For those who like to wander around shops there is Khao Lak Village, which has a small gathering of shops, bars and restaurants.
